

OVERVIEW

As countries around the world work to tackle the spread of Covid-19, the threat of business interruption has become real, throwing arrangements into disarray, disrupting workforce, and upsetting the global economy.

At home, the government has begun issuing various countermeasures and relief for businesses and public alike. The following is a summary of legislation and government updates issued to navigate the Covid-19 outbreak. Our team continues to assess developments, which will be issued in the weeks to come. TAX AND CUSTOMS

Seeking Clarity in the Government's Recent Tax Incentives

In the past weeks, we have seen numerous tax incentives and facilities. The Directorate General of Taxes recently issued two FAQ documents that give more details of some of these incentives and facilities. While these FAQs are not binding, they can be a useful point of reference for taxpayers. Click here to read more
